This booklet is a summary only. The benefits are subject to certain exclusions and policy conditions not stated in this booklet which in the event of a claim will be applicable. The benefits are provided strictly under the terms of the insurance policies taken out by the trustees of the scheme. Subscription to the scheme entitles the member to the benefits provided by the scheme but confers no ownership of any of the underlying policies which are vested in the trustees. The trustees retain the full policy wording detailing all benefits and exclusions which may be viewed on request to the NCOA Office.

Applying to Join

Serving officers can apply to join the scheme at any time by completing a medical underwriting application form which is available from the NCOA Office or by visiting www.ncoa.org.uk. The first three monthly subscriptions are free of charge when joining the scheme for the first time. New recruits and transferees receive cover for the first six months of service free of charge. The NCOA and/or Philip Williams & Co reserve the right to decline any applications.

Cohabiting Partner Extensions

Any cohabiting partner extension will cease when the member or cohabiting partner reach 65 years of age whichever is the sooner. Any cohabiting partner cover and/or extension will cease when the member ceases to be a member of the scheme.

Those going on a career break, maternity leave, secondment or are living overseas must contact the NCOA Office to identify if cover can be maintained.

Upon retirement members may remain in the scheme as a retired member providing they were a member for at least 12 months prior to retirement. This also applies to cohabiting partner cover.

Members should ensure that they have an up-to-date beneficiary nominated and have lodged the details with the NCOA Office, to assist the Trustees in the event of a claim. If a member aged 63 or under receives a terminal prognosis of 12 months or less, they may apply to the Trustees for an advance of the death benefit of 20% of the relevant sum insured.
